Exclusion Policy

Headteacher: Mrs L Sanderson

Date: October 2018

Next Review: October 2020

Rationale

South Hiendley Primary School has a behaviour policy that aims to ensure that our children develop good emotional, social and behavioural skills that will equip them well for life and has procedures in place to ensure the safety and well-being of all members of the school community. The behaviour policy includes strategies to help improve the behaviour of individual pupils and consequently avoid exclusion.

However in rare cases it may be necessary to exclude a pupil:

- In response to a serious breach of the School's Behaviour Policy and
- If allowing the pupil to remain in School would seriously harm the education or welfare of the pupil or others in the School.

Both of the above clauses need to be met before the child will be excluded.

Exclusion is an extreme sanction and is only administered by the Headteacher (or, in her absence, the Deputy Headteacher who is acting in that role).

Procedures for Exclusion

There are two types of exclusion:

- Fixed Period Exclusion
- Permanent Exclusion

Exclusion, whether fixed period or permanent may be used for unacceptable behaviour and serious and/or repeated infringements of the School's Behaviour Policy. Please see the appendix for the national standard list of reasons for exclusion.

This is not an exhaustive list and there may be other situations where the Headteacher makes the judgment that exclusion is an appropriate sanction.

Fixed Period Exclusion

Fixed period exclusions are of short duration (usually between one and three days). The DfE regulations allow the Headteacher to exclude a pupil for one or more fixed periods not exceeding 45 school days in any one school year.

The length of the exclusion will be determined by the Headteacher depending upon the severity of the misconduct. This may be lengthened by up to 5 days to give more time to meet with parents and other professionals in order to put appropriate plans in place to support the pupil on their return to school.

Procedure for fixed period exclusion:

- Following exclusion parents are contacted immediately by telephone or by a home visit to arrange collection and supervision of the pupil. A letter will also be sent giving the reason for the exclusion and the date the exclusion ends. South Hiendley Primary School uses the model letter supplied by the local authority which also gives information to parents regarding their rights to contact the Governing Board, the Local Authority and national support services if they wish to do so. This letter follows the DfE legal requirements.
- The Headteacher will also inform the Local Authority of any fixed period exclusion using the form provided by Wakefield Local Authority
- The Headteacher will make arrangements for the excluded child to receive school work to do at home until he/she returns to school.
- Educational provision must be made from the first full day of exclusion for all Looked After Children (LAC) and from the sixth full day of exclusion for all other pupils.
- A reintegration meeting will be held at school for the parents, pupil and appropriate school staff, including a member of the Leadership team when the pupil returns to school.
- The Headteacher must inform the Governing Board if a pupil is excluded for more than 15 days in one term.

Permanent Exclusions.

Procedures for permanent exclusion:

- The Headteacher informs the parents/carers of the exclusion both verbally and in writing. South Hiendley Primary School uses the model letter supplied by the Local Authority that inform the parents/carers of their rights to make representations to the school's Governing Board and Local Authority.
- The Headteacher will notify the Local Authority and the school's Governing Board within one day.
- The Governing Board will convene a meeting within 15 school days of notification to consider the case. They will invite the parent/carers, Headteacher and a Local Authority officer.
- The child remains on the school register until the appeals procedure is completed or until the parents/carers confirm that they accept the exclusion and intend to make other arrangements, whichever is sooner. The Headteacher will arrange for work to be set and monitored during the first 5 days of the exclusion and then this responsibility is taken over by the Local Authority.

A child will only be excluded from school as a last resort.

Alternatives to Exclusion

Alternative strategies to exclusion are included in the Behaviour Policy. The threat of a permanent exclusion will never be used as the means to coerce parents to move their child to another school.

Lunchtime Exclusion

A lunchtime exclusion may be used in response to a pupil whose behaviour at lunchtime is unacceptable on several occasions. This includes withdrawal and supervision in school over lunchtime for fixed periods.

Behaviour Outside School

Pupils' behaviour outside school on school activities, for example school trips or sports events, is subject to the School's Behaviour Policy and unacceptable behaviour will be dealt with as if it had taken place in school. For behaviour outside School but not on linked to a school activity this policy will still have effect if there is a clear link between that behaviour and maintaining good behaviour and discipline in school. If pupils' behaviour in the immediate vicinity of the school or on a journey to and from school is poor and meets the school's criteria for exclusion then the Headteacher may decide to exclude.

Drug Related Exclusions

In making a decision on whether or not to exclude for a drug-related offence the Headteacher will seek advice from the Local Authority. The decision will depend on the precise circumstances of the case and the evidence available. In some cases fixed period exclusion will be more appropriate than permanent exclusion.
